In a relatively short space of time, the pizza has become part of our way of life. It now rivals in some section of the country the hot dog and the hamburger. You still can see crowds of people as they gather outside the window of a Pizzaria. Gazing in admiration as the man in white throws the dough into the air and catches it.

"What happens if it falls to the floor?" is a natural question to ask. I suggest you go inside and find out for yourself. This large good place decided to have a pizza contest. A prize of one hundred dollars to the person who could consecutively eat the most pizzas. The newsmen and photographers were all present. And then suddenly one of the newsmen went up to the owner of the establishment.

"See that old man over there. He is really the International Champion Pizza eater. Get him into the contest."

After much pleading the old man hesitated. He said to the owner.

"I will be back in an hour. Then decide about the contest."

He left the place. And exactly one hour later he returned. A big smile on his face.

"Give me those pizzas," he shouted.

Needless to say, he set a new world's record and won the hundred dollars. But the newsman wanted to know where the champion was for that one hour.

"I thought I was out of shape," he explained. "So I went to the place down the corner. Ate fifteen pizzas. Showed myself I still was the champion. Then I came back here."

••••••••••

There was a time when Americans were considered "good bread eaters." This of course made the farmers happy and helped to increase their income. And then came the trend towards having slimmer figures. So people went on diets and one of the items they cut down on was bread. And also cakes. But not all people, as you will see.

This old man came to a summer hotel for his vacation. He was very thin. The Maitre D' felt it best to seat him alone at a small table. After lunch was over, that Maitre D' asked his standard question:

"Everything o.k.?"

"Certainly not," was the reply." You are stingy with the bread. Only four slices."

Perhaps it was in a jesting spirit, but eight slices were put on the table. The Maitre D' watched carefully. The old man ate every slice! And complained-not enough bread. This time the top man in the dining room was mad. So he spoke to the baker.

"I want a loaf baked that is two feet long." The next day the loaf was sliced so that there were two halves. This time the Maitre D' went into action with a forced smile.

"Everything o.k.?" he asked the old man.

"I am angry," was the startling reply. "Tell me why you went back to two slices of bread on my table?"

••••••••••

A man goes into a first class restaurant. Orders only the most expensive items on the bill-of-fare. And when the check is presented to him by the waiter, he tells him the sad news: "I regret to state that I am broke. I just haven't any money with which to pay you. And the food was as excellent as your service."

Make no mistake about this kind of person. He knew what he was doing in the first place. But how does the restaurant owner handle the situation? The man might make an offer: "I could go into the kitchen and wash the dishes." But alas, there is a dish washing machine and he doesn't know how to operate it. Or he might suggest: "I could act as a bus boy during your evening rush." Perish the very thought of it! He could drop a tray of food on a customer and then you might end up with a law suit. Or the owner might go outside and call a police officer and have this "dead beat" as he is sometimes called-just arrested.

This particular restaurant had a perfect way of handling these people. A thin man with a french accent came over to the "dead beat." Escorted him to the back of the restaurant and showed him a case full of souvenirs. "When I was in charge of the French Resistance movement, alas, how many men I did kill." That cut short any idea of the "dead beat" to think of force. The man then continued: "See that blank space over there. The camera concealed in my hand already has taken your picture. We will have it enlarged and posted here. With two words: Not Wanted. I am certain if you look hard enough you would find the money you misplaced to pay the bill." It always worked.

Losing His Or Her Hair

If you are troubled by thinning hair, dandruff itchy scalp, if you fear approaching baldness, read the rest of this statement carefully. It may mean the difference to you between saving your hair and losing the rest of it to eventual baldness.

Baldness is simply a matter of subtraction. When the number of new hairs fail to equal the number of falling hair, you end up minus your head of hair (bald). Why not avoid baldness by preventing unnecessary loss of hair? Why not turn the tide of battle on your head by eliminating needless causes of hair loss and give Nature a chance to grow more hair for you? Many of the country's dermatologists and other foremost hair and scalp specialists believe that seborrhea, a common scalp disorder, causes hair loss. What is seborrhea? It is a bacterial infection of the scalp that can eventually cause permanent damage to the hair follicles. Its visible evidence is "thinning" hair. Its end result is baldness. Its symptoms are dry, itchy scalp, dandruff, oily hair, head scales, and progressive hair loss.

So, if you are beginning to notice that your forehead is getting larger, beginning to notice that there is too much hair on your comb, beginning to be worried about the dryness of your hair, the itchyness of your scalp, the ugly dandruff — these are Nature's Red Flags warning you of impending baldness. Even if you have been losing your hair for some time, don't let seborrhea rob you of the rest of your hair.

HOW COMATE WORKS ON YOUR SCALP

The development of an amazing new hair and scalp medicine called Comate is specifically designed to control seborrhea and stop the hair loss it causes. It offers the opportunity to thousands of men and women losing their hair to bacterial infection to reverse the battle they are now losing on their scalps. By stopping this impediment to normal hair growth, new hairs can grow as Nature intended.

This is how Comate works: (1) It combines in a single scalp treatment the essential corrective factors for normal hair growth. By its rubifacient action it stimulates blood circulation to the scalp, thereby supplying more nutrition to still-alive hair follicles. (2) As a highly effective antiseptic, Comate kills on contact the seborrhea-causing scalp bacteria believed to be a cause of baldness. (3) By its keratolitic action it dissolves ugly dandruff. By tending to normalize the lubrication of the hair shaft it corrects excessively dry and oily hair. It eliminates head scales and scalp itch.

In short, Comate offers you in a single treatment the best that modern medicine has developed for the preservation of your hair. There is no excuse today except ignorance for any man or woman to neglect seborrhea and pay the penalty of hair loss.

COMATE IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

To you we offer this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE. Treat your scalp to Comate in your own home, following the simple directions. See for yourself in your own mirror how after a few treatments, Comate makes your hair look thicker and alive. How Comate ends your dandruff, stops your scalp itch. How Comate gives your hair a chance to grow Most men and women report results after the first treatment, some take longer. But we say this to you. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the improvement in your own case — AT ANY TIME — return the unused portion for a prompt refund. No questions asked

But don't delay. For the sake of your hair, order Comate today. Nothing — not even Comate — can grow hair from dead follicles Fill out the coupon now, and take the first step toward a good head of hair again.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss. In such cases neither the Comate treatment nor any other treatment is effective.
